

HR Policy Manual

Introduction

Welcome to our company. Our people are our greatest strength, and we are committed to fostering a workplace that is respectful, inclusive, productive, and supportive. This HR Policy Manual outlines the key policies and guidelines that govern employment practices within the organization. It is designed to provide employees with a clear understanding of their rights, responsibilities, and the standards of conduct expected while working with the company.

1. Leave Policy

The company encourages employees to maintain a healthy work-life balance by providing leave for personal, medical, and family needs.

Casual Leave: Employees are entitled to 12 days of Casual Leave per year. Leave should be requested in advance whenever possible and requires approval from the reporting manager.

Sick Leave: Employees are entitled to 10 days of Sick Leave annually. In case of illness, employees should inform their manager as soon as possible. A medical certificate may be required for extended absences.

Earned Leave: Employees are eligible for 18 days of Earned Leave each year. Leave should be planned in advance to ensure smooth workflow and business continuity.

Maternity/Paternity Leave: Eligible employees will receive maternity and paternity leave in accordance with applicable laws and company policies.

Unpaid Leave: Employees may request unpaid leave when paid leave has been exhausted. Approval will depend on business requirements and management discretion.

All leave requests should be submitted through the designated leave system or by email and approved before leave is taken, except in emergencies.

2. Code of Conduct

The company expects every employee to maintain high standards of professionalism, integrity, and ethical behaviour.

Employees should:

- Treat colleagues, clients, and stakeholders with respect and courtesy.
- Maintain confidentiality of company information and customer data.
- Avoid discrimination, harassment, bullying, or any inappropriate behaviour.
- Use company resources responsibly and only for legitimate business purposes.
- Follow company policies and comply with all applicable laws.
- Avoid situations that create conflicts of interest and disclose any potential conflicts to management.

The company is committed to providing a safe, inclusive, and respectful workplace for all employees. Any violation of this Code of Conduct may result in disciplinary action, including warnings or termination depending on the severity of the misconduct.

3. Work From Home (WFH) Guidelines

The company supports flexible work arrangements wherever business requirements permit. Employees working remotely are expected to maintain the same level of professionalism and productivity as they would while working from the office.

Employees working from home should:

- Follow their regular working hours and remain available during office hours.
- Attend scheduled meetings and respond to work-related communications promptly.
- Complete assigned tasks within agreed timelines and maintain expected performance standards.
- Maintain a secure and professional workspace with a stable internet connection.
- Protect confidential company information and use company devices responsibly.
- Inform their reporting manager immediately in case of illness, internet issues, or any situation affecting their ability to work.

Work-from-home arrangements are subject to manager approval and may be modified based on business requirements.

Conclusion

This HR Policy Manual provides a framework for maintaining a professional, respectful, and productive workplace. By following these policies, employees contribute to a positive work culture built on trust, collaboration, and accountability. The company may update these policies from time to time to reflect changing business needs or legal requirements, and employees will be informed of any significant changes.
